

RFB&D is an Authorized User of NIMAC for TX Schools!

What content is available from RFB&D?

- Over 61,000 titles.
 - Textbooks from core K-12 publishers, all grade levels
 - Literature – award winning novels, classic novels, supplemental nonfiction titles to support report writing
- DAISY audio content in specialized subject areas read by human voice, complete with audio descriptions of figures, graphs
 - Math
 - Science
 - Foreign language

How do I get textbooks from RFB&D?

- Search RFB&D's library at <http://www.rfbd.org> and click on Book Catalog
- Many of your students' needs are already available in accessible audio format
 - Audio titles available on CD or downloadable versions
- Note: Titles published prior to 8/16/2006 are generally not available through the NIMAC – in our catalog they're available now in navigable audio format!

NIMAS Book Ordering

Who is eligible to order NIMAS books from RFB&D?

- RFB&D school members
- School contacts order for students with print disabilities who have an IEP

How do I order NIMAS books from RFB&D?

- If a student specifically requires a text version of their book, search the NIMAC repository at www.nimac.us to see if the book has already been submitted by the publisher for download
- If the book is in the NIMAC, email RFB&D at nimas@rfbd.org with the following information:
 - Book title, author, publisher, ISBN
 - RFB&D member name and RFB&D ID for your school
 - State that the individual student requiring the book has an IEP and is therefore eligible for NIMAS books
- RFB&D will then download the files from the NIMAC, create a student-ready version of your book and ship them to your school on CD.

What is RFB&D's NIMAS product?

- A student-ready version of the electronic text of the book synchronized with synthetic audio, plus any images that the publisher provided.
- NIMAS books are delivered on CDs
- NIMAS books are played on specialized software for optimal use
 - The audio only portion of the NIMAS book can be played on the specialized hardware devices that we also offer for sale
- A full listing of the software options is available on our website <https://custhub.rfbd.org/BrowseProducts.asp>

What if my book is not listed in the NIMAC site?

- Check the copyright date of your book – if 2006 or prior, publishers are not required to submit an electronic text version of the book to the NIMAC
- Search RFB&D's online catalog and order an accessible audio version of the book, as an interim option for your student
- Contact your district or state office responsible for purchasing books and let them know the title is needed in an electronic format
 - All textbook purchasing contracts should require the publisher to send NIMAS files to the NIMAC
- Once the book has been submitted to the NIMAC, email RFB&D with the information above and we'll create a student-ready NIMAS book for your student!

Who do I contact with my NIMAS questions?

- Email us at nimas@rfbd.org
- For immediate information, contact Mary Alexander, Director of Programs and Services, Southwest Region at: malexander@rfbd.org